

Moe Jamil

Meet the Candidates, week 21: Can you explain to voters why they should care about the District 3 race? Why does it matter to their lives? Please be specific.

President Obama said “Don’t Boo, Vote!”

Elections matter and have consequences. Our next supervisor will vote to decide whether we appoint and confirm police commissioners that have our officers’ backs and improve the morale of the department or whether we will be blinded by ideology when it comes to policing and public safety. This supervisor will decide whether we allow 25-story Fontana Towers on the waterfront or whether we build sensibly and fight to preserve and protect rent controlled housing.

As District 3’s supervisor, I understand that every decision made at city hall will affect the daily lives of residents and businesses.