Meet the candidates, week 28: “Do you plan to bring in more tourists to the Richmond? If so, how?”

Time Out Magazine has declared the Richmond as one of the coolest neighborhoods in the world — thanks to our diverse small businesses and vibrant communities surrounded by the Golden Gate Bridge, Ocean Beach, Lands End and Golden Gate Park. As supervisor, I have worked with the National Park Service to activate the Cliff House and now we will continue to push for it to reopen. I also worked to remove bureaucratic red tape so Seal Rock Inn can reopen their dining space. We worked with the Park Chalet and the Richmond District Police Station to prevent car break-ins that had impacted their parking lot over the last few years and now, they are celebrating their 20th Anniversary.

With the Legion of Honor celebrating its 100th anniversary this year, we are also highlighting our collaboration of landmarking city cemetery in Lincoln Park, honoring the history of San Francisco. These collective efforts consistently bring more visitors to the Richmond. Clearly, we will have more to come to showcase the Richmond — we're one of the best neighborhoods in the world and we're working to make it even better.
