

Our team is implementing Mayor Lurie's plan to ensure that no parent is forced to raise their child in a vehicle, and we have been working for months to address and prevent RV homelessness with compassion and accountability. We are offering better options for our families and safe, clean streets for our communities—as we do, with extensive individualized outreach and ongoing community engagement, the city is going to be with families every step of the way on the path to permanent housing.