

Confidential

District 4 Candidate Questionnaire

Please provide the following information and submit to Adam Thongsavat adam.thongsavat@sfgov.org. Please submit by no later than the end of business day on Monday, November 17. All questionnaires are considered confidential.

Name & Contact Information

Name:

Home Address:

Email:

Phone Number:

Education

List each college and graduate school you have attended, including dates of attendance, degrees received and dates degrees were granted.

At any stage of your academic career, did you face any formal disciplinary process? If so, describe and provide details on any outcome.

Employment Record

List (by year) all governmental agencies, businesses or professional corporations, companies, firms, or other enterprises, partnerships, institutions, and organizations, nonprofit or otherwise, with which you are or have been connected as an officer, director, partner, proprietor, or employee.

Writings and Speeches

List the titles, publishers, and dates of books, articles, reports, letters to the editor, editorial pieces, or other published material written or edited. Supply copies. (If not applicable, please respond N/A)

Background & Biography

Provide date and place of birth.

Where did you grow up?

Where did you attend high school?

Do you have any military experience? If so, please provide dates of service, branch and a list of duty station.

Were you a part of a social fraternal organization or other similar social groups in college?

If so, were there any hazing incidents before/during your time that were reported? Not reported?

How many drivers' licenses do you have? For what states?

Are you currently registered to vote in San Francisco?

If you have a spouse or partner, what is their occupation? Where are they currently employed?

Social Media

Provide a list of all current and inactive social media accounts that you control or are controlled on your behalf. For accounts that are private, please be prepared to allow access to the accounts and all material shared via the accounts.

Do you have any other social media channels (i.e., Snapchat) of which we should know. Do you have a "finsta" ('fake' Instagram account, typically only used to post 'bad' photos) account, or do any of your friends have finstas with potentially compromising content about you?

Will you provide access to the social media accounts you have put into private mode?

Do any of your friends have potentially compromising content about you on their existing social media channels?

Have arguments on social media ever entangled you? Have you ever said anything that could be perceived as offensive on social media platforms such as X?

Have any of your social media posts garnered criticism?

Have you ever deleted a post on social media that has received criticism or controversy?

Property/Residence

Is the home address listed above your primary residence? Do you list that address on your voter registration, driver's license, vehicle registration (if any)? How long have you lived there?

Besides those provided in your response, are there any other addresses that you own in whole or in part, rent, or otherwise use or have property rights over?

Do you own or rent your primary residence?

If own, do you claim the homeowner's exemption on your property?

› Do you own additional property from which you don't derive rental income? If so, what is this property's tax status?

› Have you appealed the property tax assessment on any San Francisco property you own?

Do you currently own rental property in San Francisco?

› Is title to your primary residence or any other property in which you have an ownership interest held by a business, trust, or another individual? Who are your partners in these properties?

› If so, where are these properties located and how are these properties held (LLC, etc.)?

What tax exemptions do you have on these properties, if any?

› Have you ever had an issue with a tenant? Have you attempted to evict a tenant? Any complaints/litigation filed by tenants? Any interactions with or complaints to the SF Rent Board? How about the 311 system? Regulatory departments?

Have you hired a permit expeditor?

Career

Have you ever been named in a workplace dispute or complaint? Have you ever been reprimanded or accused of improper behavior in the workplace? If so, what was the outcome? Have any colleagues been involved in any of the above?

Have you ever had issues with a co-worker/employee we should know about?

Are you registered to lobby in San Francisco? Is your spouse or partner?

Have you directly or indirectly benefitted from a city contract, lease, or grant either personally or via your association with a non-profit or business?

Businesses/Investments/Non-Profits

What has your role been in the businesses and non-profits listed on your CV/resume? Do you receive compensation?

Do you currently or have you had any roles in businesses and nonprofits that are not listed on your resume? If so, please list those entities and if you received any compensation from them.

› To the best of your knowledge, are these companies and non-profit organizations current on their taxes?

› To the best of your knowledge are they registered with the San Francisco Treasurer & Tax Collector?

Are you aware if any of these businesses or non-profits faced or filed litigation, complaints (formal/informal), financial issues, issues with employees, etc.? With a governmental agency (e.g. enforcement agency)? If so, please explain. Have you had any role in the litigation? If so, please explain. What impact did the litigation have on the businesses or non-profit? Have the matters you addressed here been resolved? If so, how?

Do you have any stock holdings? Any investments/stocks in individual companies? If so, which companies? What is the nature of your involvement in each company/how did you get involved? (e.g. Were you an early investor, served on a board, etc.?) Have you been involved with any other early-stage companies as an investor, board member, or stockholder?

Personal Wealth

Are you or your family affiliated with any LLCs or other ‘shell’ companies that have purchased property assets in your name?

Do you personally have any offshore bank accounts?

How is this money taxed? Do you file income tax reports in California? Any other states? Foreign countries?

Community Work/Advocacy

Please describe your role in any community or advocacy organizations. Any compensation? Controversies? Any additional organizations you have been involved with?

Have you attended city meetings or listening sessions? Which?

Have you submitted public comments related to city meetings or listening sessions? Testified?

References

Please provide 10 individuals who live in San Francisco and/or District 4 who could serve as a reference for you. Please include their contact information (name, title, email and/or phone).

Policy Questions

Please describe any perspectives or positions you may have on the following issues. If you don't currently have a position, please note that.

Family Zoning Plan: The newly appointed supervisor will need to take a vote on the Family Zoning Plan. What do you believe is the right approach to the Family Zoning plan, and how would you vote if appointed?

Great Highway: How did you vote on Prop K regarding the closure of the Great Highway to cars? Do you believe the current arrangement works for the Sunset? If not, what would you propose instead?

Budget: Supervisors play a key role in adopting the City's budget. What experience do you have overseeing a large budget, and what would you advocate for and prioritize?

Public Safety:

Last year, SFPD launched RTIC—a real-time intelligence hub that uses tools such as drones, Flock ALPRs, public safety cameras, and mobile security units to support officers in the field. Do you support this approach, and why or why not?

SFPD continues to face significant staffing shortages that impact response times and public safety. What strategies would you support to improve recruitment and retention?

Thank you for completing the questionnaire. Please return to Adam Thongsavat adam.thongsavat@sfgov.org by end of business on Monday, November 17.