

Statement from Connie Chan's campaign spokesperson Julie Edwards:

"The reality is that right now, Donald Trump is undermining long-standing American foreign policy and security around the globe. We certainly do not want and cannot trust his Administration to set the terms for any diplomatic discussions as it is painfully obvious his top priority is enriching his family and his cronies.

Connie Chan has said repeatedly that the U.S. should be an agent for peace and stability, and that will be her guiding principle on foreign policy. That is why she believes so strongly that the number one threat to us when it comes to foreign policy are the chaotic and corrupt actions of Donald Trump which destabilizes any attempts to foster dialogue and support between Beijing and Taipei. And those policies certainly make it more difficult for the U.S. to engage in the sort of on-going conversation we should be having with China as it relates to trade policy, human rights, immigration or any other issue."
