Mandatory CTC report against your credential because of leaving the district because of the investigation

New AB 2534 egregious conduct

This is a lower level; the fiscal mismanagement is high up there. It causes people not to trust you. I have handled 6 CTC cases. It would be a difficult case for you at CTC. Moving to another district can prompt a two-year investigation and could be very costly.

Reassignment or voluntary transfer may not trigger a report to CTC.
The CTC usually goes after both credentials.

15 Things:

- Springboard and Title 1 fund trigger a federal investigation
- Title 1
- Amazon account
- Patio heater
- Your home address on accounts
- Springboard card deposit
- Venmo account
- Square account
- Using Venmo when directed to stop
- 826 Valencia employee doing the work to install
- SFUSD union workers not used
- Paying out of petty cash
- Asking for reimbursement
- Sold items unaligned with the district authority

- Ambiguity about pass employment

A voluntary transfer may trigger a CTC report. Moving to a voluntary transfer lowers the risk of a mandatory CTC report.
